3. Licence and access to services

Solely for use in connection with the Services, LinearParking grants you a limited, non-transferable, non-exclusive, revocable licence to access the Services and make personal use of the Site and Service. This licence does not include any resale or commercial use of LinearParking's Service; any collection and use of any information, descriptions, or prices; any derivative use of the Site or its contents; any downloading or copying of account information for the benefit of others; or any use of data mining, robots, or similar data gathering and extraction tools. Any unauthorised use terminates the permission or license granted by LinearParking.

You acknowledge and agree that the licence to use the Services is conditioned on the following restrictions:

- You shall not share with or assign, copy (except as expressly set forth herein), sub-licence, transfer, lease, rent, sell, distribute, or otherwise provide to any third party (i) your licence; (ii) the App; (iii) any use of the Services; or (iv) your rights under these Terms and Conditions.

4. Using your account

Purpose

You can use the Account to pay for parking at any parking facility that uses the LinearParking service. You can access your Transactions and review your recent account history on our Site.

Use of Account, Password, and your Mobile Phone

During the process of opening an Account you will be asked to enter a confidential password which allows you to securely access your Account. You will also provide us with the telephone number of your phone which will provide access to the Account. The Account and password are provided for your use and protection. You agree:

- Not to disclose the password and not to record it on your phone or otherwise make it available to anyone else.
- To use the Account, the password and your phone as instructed.

- To promptly notify us of any loss, unauthorised use or theft of your Account or password.
- You are liable for any transactions made by a person you authorise or permit to use your Account and/or password. If you permit someone else to use the Account, we and the Facilities Operator will treat this as if you have authorised this person to use the Account and you will be responsible for any transactions initiated by such person with the Account.

5. Pricing, payment and refunds

Pricing

You agree that the fees and service charges included in the transaction cost confirmed before you start parking apply to the Account and may be charged to the Account. You authorise us to initiate any such charges to the Account as applicable.

You are subject to any applicable terms, conditions, restrictions, and other requirements of any payment provider related to any Payment Method and we have no liability for any transaction fees, insufficient fund charges, or any other fee or charge that is assessed by a payment provider in connection with your use of such payment provider for Transactions.

You understand that parking rates vary as a result of parameters set by the Transaction Entity and Facilities Operator, such as parking location, time of day, day of the week, special events, and that these variances are beyond our control and may not be reflected in the App or Services in a timely manner. We pass all parking fees and charges through to you and we are not responsible for any parking rate variances, parking rate changes or for any differences between the parking rates reflected in the App or Service and the parking rates assessed by the Transaction Entity or Facilities Operator at the time of the Parking Session. You are solely responsible for determining the parking rates applicable to your parking session before commencing a Transaction.

You are solely responsible for any Parking Charges or Penalty Charge notices incurred in connection with your vehicle. LinearParking does not issue or enforce parking restrictions, Parking Charges, or Penalty Charge Notices. If you receive such a notice, it is your responsibility to resolve it directly with the relevant authority or operator. LinearParking is not liable for, nor responsible to pay, any such penalties or charges.

You are also solely responsible for all fees or charges you incur in connection with your use of your mobile device to access the App or Services, including but not limited to, data usage, texting, data overages, per-minute charges, roaming, and other telecom or access charges and you acknowledge that such fees or charges may apply and that you are solely responsible for such charges and fees.

A chargeback fee of £15.00 (subject to change upon notice) may be assessed if an attempt to charge your Account is rejected for insufficient funds available on your selected Payment Method, for cancellation of your Payment Method or otherwise.

Payment

You agree to pay the parking fee together with all other fees, charges, or assessments related to Transactions. Payments shall be made in the currency of the country where the parking facility is located. Prices paid shall be at the price posted at the parking facility or be at the price configured in the LinearParking rates system as specified by the Facilities

Operator on the date of service plus a service charge determined by LinearParking. Charges by LinearParking may be changed as described below.

Each time you use the Account to pay for a parking session, the amount of the Transaction, including applicable taxes and service charges, will be charged to the Payment Method selected for the Account. We will inform you of the amount to be charged for each Transaction. You authorise LinearParking to charge your Payment Method for such amounts each time the service is used.

Refunds

We will make every attempt to deliver a high level of service at all times. If you think there has been a billing or accounting error, please contact our Customer Support centre listed at the end of this page. Our Customer Support centre will connect you to the Facilities Operator for the facility whose charges resulted in the billing or accounting error. If you are entitled to a refund for any reason for services obtained with the Account, you agree to accept credits to the Payment Method selected on the Account in place of cash. We and the Facilities Operators will not provide cash refunds.

If you have any questions about a refund or other similar issue, please contact the appropriate Customer Care centre.

6. Verification of transactions

Details of your transactions will be available in real time on your online statement in your Account or on our Site. You agree that we may provide you periodic statements and any other notices related to our Services electronically via your Account or our Site. Statements provided electronically will describe each transaction using the Account during the statement period. Your statement will be available to you in electronic format for viewing and printing online on our Site. You may review your recent transaction history in your Account at any time, currently set at one year's worth of transactions.

7. Failure to complete transactions

You understand that using the Services does not guarantee you a parking space and you only activate the Services after you have found an available and valid parking space.

You understand that you are solely responsible for ensuring that you have properly started the Parking Session for the appropriate parking location before you leave your vehicle unattended.

You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for correctly entering the relevant information in relation to your parking Transactions, including without limitation, (i) parking location number for the relevant parking space for which you are trying to effect a payment, (ii) the vehicle registration mark being used matches that of the vehicle you are parking, and (iii) the information relating to the Payment Method intended to be used to pay for the Transaction.

As part of the Services, LinearParking may send you reminders, alerts, or critical notifications via push notification, text message or email. You acknowledge and agree that the reception of any such message is not 100% guaranteed and that you are responsible for the timely activation or deactivation of a Parking Session, where permitted. You further acknowledge and agree that the reception of notifications is dependent on the operation, coverage, and services of your mobile network provider and/or internet service provider. LinearParking shall have no responsibility or liability for the damages and costs incurred by you not receiving notifications on time or at all or by the insufficient operation of your mobile network, mobile phone company and/or internet service provider.

We and the Facilities Operators accept no liability to complete any transaction which cannot be cleared by our payment processors, whether because there are not sufficient funds available on your Payment Method or otherwise.

Neither we nor any of the Facilities Operators will be liable to you for any failure to accept or honour the Account.

8. LinearParking is a parking services company

LinearParking provides a service to enable your payment for parking at certain facilities. LinearParking does not own, operate or maintain parking facilities and is not responsible for any such facilities or events that occur at such facilities. Parking facilities are operated by companies with which LinearParking has contractual relationships, but LinearParking is not responsible for actions taken by such companies.

All advertised parking restrictions shall take precedence over any information that you receive from LinearParking, including physical signs prohibiting parking in a certain area. LinearParking will not be responsible for any incorrect or conflicting parking restrictions advertised on signage.

9. Permits

We provide some consumers with the opportunity to purchase permits from relevant transaction entities, Facilities Operators and partners ("Permit Issuers"). A permit serves as the official confirmation of your purchase of an item offered for sale by Permit Issuers.

Permit Issuers, not LinearParking, determine the price and availability of those permits. The Permit Issuers have policies that sometimes prohibit us from issuing permits or performing exchanges or refunds after the purchase of a permit has been made. You understand that if you purchase a permit through LinearParking, you are nevertheless subject to the rules, policies, and terms of the relevant Permit Issuer.

10. Disclaimer of service level guarantees

Note that the services are only available in selected locations and may not be available at all times at active locations. While we will endeavour to provide the best possible service, there are limitations to cellular and payment technologies which may cause interruptions in service. Please note that we provide no service level guarantees whatsoever concerning this service.

Unless the law provides otherwise, you waive and release us from any obligations that could arise due to defences, rights and claims you have or may have against any third party on account of the use of the Account.

11. Warranties, indemnifications and limits of liability

Disclaimer about Warranties

You understand that the Services subject to this agreement are provided on “as is” and “as available” basis. LinearParking makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, as to the operation of this service or the information, content, materials, or products included on our Site. You expressly agree that your use of this Site and our Service is at your sole risk.

You also understand and agree that any data, content, or information downloaded or otherwise obtained through your use of the App or Services, including viruses, are obtained at your own discretion and risk and that you will be solely responsible for any damage to your computer system or loss of data that results from such download.

Users must always verify the correct location number from the LinearParking site and on-site signage before completing a parking transaction. LinearParking accepts no responsibility for parking sessions booked using an incorrect location number.

LinearParking does not own, control or operate parking facilities. Accordingly, LinearParking does not warrant anything with respect to such facilities. LinearParking will not be liable for any damages of any kind arising from or related to any parking facility or its operation, including, but not limited to direct, indirect, incidental, punitive, and consequential damages arising from damage to your vehicle, loss of your vehicle, or loss of articles left in your vehicle or for any personal injury in any circumstances.

LinearParking is also not responsible for any parking charge notice fees you incur or receive, even if the Services were used in connection with a Transaction. You are solely responsible for resolving with the relevant authorities any issues that you may have regarding Parking Charge Notices. We do not enforce any parking restrictions and have no ability to control the actions of third parties who enforce parking restrictions or assess parking penalties.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, hold harmless and defend LinearParking with respect to any claim, demand, cause of action, debt, liability, damages, costs or expenses, including reasonable solicitor’s fees and expenses of LinearParking’s selected solicitors, arising from any third-party claim against LinearParking relating to (i) your violation of law, ii) your infringement of any Intellectual Property or similar proprietary rights of any person or entity; (iii) any non-compliance with or violation of your Licence; (iv) your improper or illegal use of the App or Services; (v) any act or omission or wilful misconduct of yours; (vi) any breach of any of your representations, warranties, or covenants made herein; and (vii) any failure by you to comply with these Terms and Conditions.

Limitation of Liability

By using the App or Services, you hereby release, remise and forever discharge and give up any and all claims which you may have against LinearParking, which now or hereafter arise from, relate to or are connected with the use of the App or Services. You further waive, release and give up any and all claims and defences arising from or relating to any act, event or omission. This includes, without limitation, any claim which could be asserted now or in the future under (i) the common law; (ii) any LinearParking policies, practices, or procedures; and/or (iii) any legal statutes or regulations.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, LinearParking disclaims all warranties, express or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. LinearParking does not warrant that our Site, its servers, or e-mail sent from LinearParking are free of viruses or other harmful components. LinearParking will not be liable for any damages of any kind arising from the use of our Service, including, but not limited to direct, indirect, incidental, punitive, and consequential damages.

Certain jurisdictions may have laws that do not allow limitations on implied warranties or the exclusion or limitation of certain damages. If these laws apply to you, some or all of the above disclaimers, exclusions, or limitations may not apply to you, and you might have additional rights.

12. Loss, theft or unauthorised use

You are responsible for all authorised uses of your Account. Applicable law may protect you from liability for unauthorised purchases. You understand that your Account is not a credit account and is not protected by laws covering credit accounts.

Tell us at once if you believe that your Account has been used by an unauthorised person. Telephoning us is the best way to keep your possible losses. If you believe that your phone has been stolen, or that someone has transferred or may improperly charge the account without your permission, contact the appropriate Customer Support centre or email at customerservice@LinearParking.co.uk. If you fail to notify us promptly and you are grossly negligent or fraudulent in the handling of the account, you could incur additional charges.

If your phone or Payment Method has been reported lost, stolen or otherwise tampered with, we may close the Account to keep your and our losses down.

13. Notice containing information about your right to dispute errors

In case of errors or questions about Transactions on your Account, contact our Customer Support centre or email us at customerservice@LinearParking.co.uk as soon as you can, including if you think the statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. Under most circumstances, we will connect you to the Facilities Operator whose charges resulted in the error or whose transaction resulted in questions. Disputes involving operators of parking facilities will be resolved pursuant to their procedures.

For disputes that we (rather than a Facilities Operator) are involved in, we must hear from you no later than 30 days after the transaction in question has been made available to you on the online statement.

The following information must be contained in that notice:

- Your name, user name and phone number used for the Account.
- Description of the error or the transaction you are unsure about and an explanation as clearly as possible of why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

- The amount in local currency of the suspected error

If you tell us verbally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. Generally, we will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 calendar days to investigate your complaint or question.

If we decide there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three business days, after we finish our investigation. You may ask for copies of documents that we used in our investigation.

14. Dispute resolution and confidential arbitration

Any dispute relating in any way to the services offered by LinearParking not resolved in accordance with the preceding Section 13 shall be submitted to confidential arbitration, except that, to the extent you have in any manner violated or threatened to violate LinearParking's intellectual property rights, LinearParking may seek injunctive or other appropriate relief in court, and you consent to exclusive jurisdiction and venue in such courts. Arbitration under this agreement shall be conducted under the rules then prevailing of the ADR conducted by a single arbitrator. The arbitrator's award shall be binding and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no arbitration under this Agreement shall be joined to an arbitration involving any other party subject to this Agreement, whether through class arbitration proceedings or otherwise.

15. Disclosure of account information to third parties

From time to time, subject to any applicable financial privacy laws or other laws or regulations, we may provide information about you and the Account:

- To parking and payment companies with whom we have relationships.
- In response to any subpoena, summons, court or administrative order, or other legal process which we believe requires our compliance.
- In connection with collection of indebtedness or to report losses incurred by us.
- In compliance with any agreement between us and a professional, regulatory or disciplinary body.

For more information on how your information is used including your rights under the UK Data Protection Act 2018 (General Data Protection Regulations 2018) (GDPR), please read our Privacy Policy.

19. Cancellation of your account

You may choose to cancel this agreement by closing your Account on our Site, by emailing us at customerservice@LinearParking.co.uk, or by contacting the appropriate Customer Support Centre listed at the end of this page.
